A very fine restaurant should have at least one dish that anyone could pay. One dish for the artists, one good meal at the menu, one cheap and good. The dish would make you full and happy, that would make a good play, Money would mix. Curious of how good it would work, so much more fun at the dinner tables. Mix of social classes is sexy, someone's gotta make it happen. All that milk and honey, mix it with butter and eat it with bread. Give me a little kiss and I'll give you a dance. Bubblegum honey moon, take a look at the very best wedding pictures. You will see, they look happy cause they got the impossible, Love. Sex. Holidays full of roses. Kind of like it.

So which pill are you choosing ? Red or blue. Get ready for a race. The sweet escape is to swallow both, think about the ten riches people getting children together, everything comes to an end.

All the best Mira
