What's up little chicken, are your doing fine, I would like to know how fast you run and where you gonna hide.

You better spread that wings and fly, cause its a tough life out there, know your foxes in the chicken farm. They will be everywhere.

All my little chickens, please take a leap into the sky. Don't bother, I'll tell you why.

Stay behind the fox will get you and you gonna die

Big kisses from Town
